“ My deep condolences to the Hatcher family. Losing our loved ones is something we never look forward to, but God knew it would hurt, so he made provisions for us to have a bible based hope until he bring our loved ones back in the resurrection. John5:28-29.

“ Mr. A W was always a joy to be around. I would always stop by the store to visits, sometimes way too long. He always treated me kind and respectful. I am sure even if I had not been a friend and co-worker of John Austin he would have been the same. Rest in Peace Mr. A W you have left a great mark on the world for generation to come !!!

Pam Blackwell,

I am sorry for your loss. I lost my father the year before I came to EC and met you wonderful NW & Pater ppl. I take comfort in the verse where Jesus says he goes to prepare a place for us, if this were not so, would I not tell you. Im sorry I can't be with you during this time. Know my prayers will be lifting your family up.
