“ I Loved my First Cousin, Anna Katherine so much and my Sister Peggy Ann did too. Her and my Sister, Peggy Ann Livingston grew up together and was Best Friends. After she moved her membership to Evergreen Church, Peggy Ann drove to Louisville to her apartment, every Sunday morning to pick her up for Church. I am so sorry she has had such a hard time in Nursing Homes. I called her and talked to her back when she was able, in Starkville Minor. It just broke my Heart to know how she was mistreated in some of The Nursing Homes.

I Prayed for her every night, for God to be with her Every Need, and take Care of her.

Anna I am thankful now you want hurt anymore. I know this is what you having been wanting. You was ready to be with Jesus. Now Heaven will be a Better Place.

You will always be in mine, and Peggy Ann's Heart
