“ Betty was a true friend to us as soon as we became her pastor at Crystal Ridge Baptist Church. We ate several meals with Harold and Betty while we were there. She continued to call us often even after we moved to Texas, and she always told us that she loved us and prayed for us often. We will miss those calls from her now, but we know she loved the Lord and was ready to meet Him. We are praying for all of you. Your mother and grandmother loved all of you very much and was proud of you. Thank you so much for taking care of her and loving her. God bless each of you.
