Carvel "Buddy" Eaves, age 96, passed away on Saturday, July 9, 2022, in the BeeHive Homes of Louisville. Buddy was born January 5, 1926, to John and Welmer Stokes Eaves in Louisville. He was a member of Murphy Creek Baptist Church. Buddy dearly loved his church and church family. After 37 years, he retired from Southern Natural Gas where he worked in the pipe line department and later as a supervisor. Buddy is survived by two daughters Ginger Cline and husband Gary of Mendenhall, Mississippi, and Donna Carr and husband Mike of Brookhaven, Mississippi. One of his greatest joys was being "Pop or Papaw Buddy" to his six grandchildren: Keith Cline, Toni Leggett, and Caron (Joel) Wall, Casey Carr, Logan (Samantha) Carr, Hayley (Aaron) Welch; as well as 16 great-grandchildren: John Taylor Cline, Anna Rai Cline, Nic Cline, Paxton Leggett, Mattie Leggett, Colton Wall, Caleb Wall, Caroline Wall, Payden Austin, Carlie

Austin, Jadon Carr, Jude Carr, Eli Carr, Remi Carr, Laila Board, and Riley Welch. He is preceded in death by his wife Mildred Clytee Eaves, his granddaughter Lana Brister, his parents, his stepmother Belle Livingston Eaves, two sisters: Gertie White and Zelloween Pearson, and his brother Junior Eaves.

Serving as pallbearers are Gary Cline, Keith Cline, Don Eaves, Ronald Eaves, Don Foreman, and Freddy Fulcher.

“ My prayer of comfort goes out to Carvel's family. Although I did not know Carvel personally, I am part of his family. His step Mother, was my Dad's half sister. I remember Aunt Bell and Uncle Johnny so well. They were a kind and wonderful couple. When I was little they came to visit my Grandmother, Alice Livingston, on a Sunday afternoon when we were visiting her.

Thanks for sharing this! Mamaw Eaves was the “best” grandmother! We always loved going to be with she and Daddy Eaves in the summer along with other cousins! Again, thank you.
