“ Cindy and I were best friends in middle school. I can remember riding horses to her grandmother's store, helping her and getting a coke as payment for stocking cokes in the cooler. We had many fun times at her house. Rest in peace Cindy. God be with you.

“ What a caring, attentive nurse she was when I was in labor with my son! I had never met her before that night and never saw her again, but every time I recall the beautiful experience of welcoming him into this world, Cindy Young is very favorable presence in that memory. May she rest eternally in the arms of our beloved Father.
