“ Edna, I remember the many nights that your Mom would make pallets in the living room floor and let us stay up as late as we wanted. She never seemed to mind how many of us were there. You and your family are in my thoughts and prayers

“ Earline was a blessing in my life for 35 + years and was like a second Mama to me. I will miss her “ Well Hey there “ when I walk through her door and her “ Love you “ when I leave. She was the glue and heart of the Prisock flock and it will have hole in all our hearts till we see her again in Heaven.
