Helen was born March 17, 1955, to Carl Ray and Mary June Sweeney Street in Memphis, Tennessee. She was an avid reader; and she also enjoyed knitting and sewing. Helen was an awesome cook and she very much enjoyed cooking for her grandchildren. She also enjoyed working in her yard with her flowers. Helen loved to laugh and she was known for her loud, infectious laugh!

She leaves behind her devoted husband of 46 years, Andrew Cefalu; and two sons, Bubba Cefalu and wife, Candice, of Louisville; and Drew Cefalu and wife, Melissa, of Madison, Mississippi. One of her greatest joys was being “Mimi” to her four grandchildren: Cooper, Layla, Lynnlee, and Ella Cefalu. She also leaves behind two brothers Carl Ray Street, Jr. and James Malford “J. M.” Street both of Leland, Mississippi. Also left to mourn her passing is a special niece, Felecia Jones and husband, Matthew, and their daughter Aubree of Eudora, Arkansas; as well as other loving nieces, nephews, family members, and friends. Helen was preceded in death by her parents; and her brother, Dana Street.

Memorials in honor of Mrs. Cefalu may be given to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital online at stjude.org/donate.

“ Me and Helen both were loud and spoke our mind. We often called each other the black and white version of each other. Andrew, I was so hurt to hear of Helens passing. The world wont be the same. The years I worked at the Dairy Bar, Helen would come in with her cute athletic legs and her little tennis skirts! She and Andrew was the perfect couple. Dang ! “ I send my deepest heartfelt condolences to Andrew. I also extend my condolences to the entire family, as well as to her friends. I am so sorry that I can't be there with you all. I have been living in Texas for a little more than 2 years now. My health is not what it used to be, which is one of the reasons I moved to Texas in the first place... I'll just leave it at that. She will be sorely missed. I loved her dearly. She always made me laugh and feel good. R.I.P. Helen. You were always one of my treasured cousins... Until we meet again. <3
