“ There are no words to say to help make this any better. Tony, I've loved you as my brother for the fifteen years that I've known you. You've always brought your light and joy to everyone around you, especially when you'd play football with our kids in the yard. The boys love you so very much. I pray that God takes you into His arms and gives you the warm loving hugs that we cannot give to you right now. We will see you again brother. I love you, and I promise you that I will always take care of Sissy for you.
