“ *We are so sorry for the loss of precious Jack Pearson. He was such a very dear friend to us for the short 4 years we knew him. The very first time we visited Antioch Baptist Church he and Mr. Leland James were on the porch at the church. The two of them made us feel so welcome. And from that point on we hugged everytime we saw each other. He was a faithful man and was always smiling. He will be truly missed 😭 but his precious memories will live in our hearts forever ❤️ Praying for his sweet family and friends.
