“ Dearest Jammy,

I am so blessed to have had you as a brother and more importantly as a friend. Your time on this earth was too short. I know that Daddy and Momma are so proud of the man you became. Our hearts are broken, more so since we are unable to be there due to recent illness.

It seems like only yesterday I was sneaking into momma and daddy's bedroom to get you out of your crib and lay you on a blanket in the living room so you could watch cartoons with Susan and I, you and Micheal running around the house playing dukes of hazard and sliding across our bed, getting your tooth knocked out on the school bus, and laughing at me when I fell off your bicycle. I loved your spontaneity, whether it was going to Memphis to get barbecue or just showing up at my house in Tampa. I admired that you always followed your own heart and did not live your life to fit in or please others. Most of all I will miss you quick wit and laughter. We always had a good time together, whether it was going out to eat, shopping, talking for hours in your little FEMA trailer, sharing pictures of our latest remodeling endeavor, your newest zombie killer, or a new recipe.

This world will be a lonelier place without you in it. I am a better person because you were in my life. You will live on in our hearts and in the example, you set for your children.

I will love and miss you always.

Rest in peace dear brother. Debbie and Chris
