

Jeannette M. Jauch

June 13, 1934 - July 27, 2017

Jeannette Marie was born to Canadian immigrants, Alfred and Auria Thibault on June 13, 1934 in Winsted, CT. When she was a teenager, a young man in the clock factory where she was working bet a fellow co-worker he could get a date with "that pretty girl" working on the assembly line. He won the bet (and her heart) and on February 9, 1952, Jeannette and Christian Jauch were married. They soon welcomed a son, Christian Jr., in 1953 and a daughter, Kathy, in 1956,

In 1965, they loaded up the kids and all their possessions in the old black Studebaker (often referred to as The Batmobile) and left Connecticut to start a new adventure 1300 miles away in Louisville, MS. Many happy years were spent there before work would again move them. First to Illinois, then to Lawrence MS, then to New Jersey, until finally coming back home to Louisville where they have lived since 1985.

Jeannette was known to many by a variety of names. Since she was the baby of the family, her brothers, sisters, nieces and nephews called her by (what we were told), the French word for little, "TeeTee". Dad never called her by her given name; he always called her Kitten. Her friends called her Jan and her CB radio handle was Mama Meatball. To her grandchildren she was Gramma or Grammy (although she was jokingly called Grandma Fluffy after two of the grandkids gave her a magnet with a sheep declaring "Ewes not fat, ewes

Her sense of humor was playful and mischievous, but never mean, and her smile and laugh were infectious. She loved people, loved music, loved to cook (especially for a party) and was known for her delicious meatballs (hence the name Mama Meatball).

Jeannette was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother and friend, but above all this, she was an obedient servant to God. She loved her church, Sacred Heart Catholic Church, where her love of Our Lord Jesus Christ was evident by her prayers, her presence and her love and acceptance of all who worshiped there. She even volunteered to teach English to the Spanish speaking congregation and took Spanish herself in order to better communicate with them. She was generous to a fault with anyone she encountered in need and truly personified being the hands and feet of Jesus for as long as she was able.

Jeannette was preceded in death by her parents, brothers Henry Thibault and Paul Thibault, along with sisters Irene Wilcox and Germaine Dembkoski.

Jeannette leaves behind her husband of 65 years, Christian Jauch, son Christian Jauch, Jr. of Peru IL, daughter Kathy Pickett of Madison MS, six grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

The family would like to express their deep appreciation to Dr. Timothy Estes, the exceptional staff at Chadwick Nursing & Rehabilitation, Camellia Hospice and the endless number of friends and family who have prayed during this transition to eternity. Jeannette Marie Thibault Jauch has earned her heavenly wings and we praise God for welcoming her home.

“ Just now saw that this sweet lady has left us for her heavenly home. Jan was the sweetest and kindest person I had the privilege of meeting when I attended Sacred Heart church with my then husband, Ellzey Hutton. She was the first to offer support when things went wrong in my life. I will never forget how kind and gracious she always was. Rest in peace, Jan and "I'll see you later".
