

Jimmie Sue Hatcher

July 6, 1930 - February 5, 2023

Jimmie Sue Hatcher, 92, passed away on Sunday, February 5, 2023, at Choctaw Nursing and Rehabilitation Center in Ackerman, Mississippi, surrounded by her loving family. Funeral services will be 11 a.m. on Thursday, February 9, at Harmony Baptist Church with Bro. Jerry Lundy officiating. Visitation will be the day of the service at the church from 10 a.m. until service time. Interment will immediately follow the service in Harmony Cemetery.

Jimmie Sue was born in Louisville, Mississippi, on July 6, 1930, to Austin and Bernice Taylor Edwards. She was a member of Harmony Baptist Church. Jimmie Sue loved gardening and enjoyed growing flowers, especially roses. She also enjoyed keeping her house updated; she was always ready to paint and hang wallpaper! Jimmie Sue was an excellent cook and was known for her homemade bread that she often gave as birthday gifts. She was also a very talented seamstress who could make anything.

Jimmie Sue is survived by her children: Patty Graham and husband, Stan of Pensacola, Florida; Mike Hatcher and wife, Tonia of Kosciusko, Mississippi; Bonnie S. Creekmore; Pam Blackwell and husband Steve; Jennifer Kaye Kight and husband, Wes; and daughter-in-law, Betty Lynn Hatcher, all of Louisville. One of her greatest joys was being “Mamaw” to her grandchildren: Lisa (Mark) Shaw; Amy Hatcher; Barry (Carla) Graham; Leigh Ann (Eddy) Watts; Emily (Greg) Smith; Michael (Kayla) Hatcher; Sheridan (Jeffrey)

Mitchell; Brad (Rachel) Creekmore; Ben (Alisha) Creekmore; Corey (Liz) Blackwell; Brent Blackwell; Kimberly (Tony) Lopez; Kelly (Jason) Hursh; Johnny Kight; and Jake Kight; 25 great-grandchildren; and six great-great-grandchildren. She is also survived by her sisters, Ann Covington and Joyce Springer; as well as a host of loving nieces, nephews, other family members, and friends. Jimmie Sue was preceded in death by her husband, John "A. W." Hatcher; her son, John Austin Hatcher; her daughter, Anita Faye Hatcher; granddaughter, Cindy Yarbrough; son-in-law, Jeffrey Creekmore; her parents, her sister, Louise Hamilton; and her brother, Joe Edwards.

Serving as pallbearers are Barry Graham, Michael Hatcher, Brad Creekmore, Ben Creekmore, Corey Blackwell, Brent Blackwell, Johnny Kight, and Jake Kight. Memorials can be made to Harmony Baptist Church, Memorial Bibles, Louisville, MS 39339.

Services are under the direction of Nowell-Massey Funeral Home, 724 N. Columbus Avenue, Louisville, MS 39339. Memories and condolences may be shared with the family by signing the guest register at www.nowellmasseyfuneralhome.com.

“ Mrs. Hatcher was one of the sweetest person. I can remember going to stay with Jennifer and she cooked oysters and when we sat down to eat I guess she could tell I didn't like them although I wasn't going to say a word. she just looked at me and started laughing and with a big o smile said sweetie its ok I can fix you a sandwich. I always loved going to her house and looked forward to having a conversation with her. Love you go Rest On High sweet soul,

I remember family reunions under that huge tree in the front yard. So much good food and warm hospitality. And how kind and welcoming both Aunt Jimmie Sue and Uncle AW were to Paul when I first brought him home to meet the family.

Pam, Jennifer and families. We are so sorry to hear of the passing of Ms Jimmie Sue. Our love and sincere condolences to each of y'all. It was a honor and blessing to have met and known Ms Jimmie Sue during our 14 years in Nanih Waiya and at Harmony. She was a true beauty of being a southern woman, wife, mama, grandmother/ggm, friend and most of all a Christian. It was always a joy seeing her and Mr. A.W. 'playing around'! Blessed memories of them and you girls and your sweet families. We love and miss y'all. Love, hugs and prayers for the Lord's comfort in the times ahead. RIP Ms Jimmie Sue. We love y'all. Barbara & Billy (Miss y'all)
