

John H. White

February 13, 1938 - November 28, 2025

John H. White, 87, passed away on Friday, November 28, 2025, at Baptist Memorial Hospital—Golden Triangle in Columbus, Mississippi. Funeral services will be 3 p.m. Sunday, November 30 in the Massey Funeral Home Chapel with Bro. Mark Mayo officiating. Visitation will be the day of the service at the funeral home from 2 p.m. until service time. Interment will immediately follow the service in Murphy Creek Cemetery.

John was born in Winston County, Mississippi, on February 13, 1938, to Henry Lee and Hazel “Tiny” Crowell White. He was a faithful member of Murphy Creek Baptist Church. He spent his career welding at various locations before retiring and becoming fondly known throughout the community as the “Peanut Man” for his famous boiled peanuts. A talented woodworker, he crafted rocking chairs, porch swings, cedar chests, and toy cars and trucks. He was a member of the local Masonic Lodge and took great pleasure in keeping his yard immaculate on his zero-turn mower. Above all, he dearly loved his grandchildren and enjoyed spending time with them. He proudly answered the call of his country by serving in the United States Navy.

John is survived by his wife of 66 years, Louise White of Louisville; his son, Greg White (Cindy) of Pensacola, Florida; and his daughter, Mary Katherine Johnson (Mike) also of Louisville. One of his greatest joys was being “Johnny” to his four grandchildren: Brandon White (Jennifer), Rachael Greer, (Cody), Daniel Johnson, and David Johnson; as well as two great-daughters, Lynleigh White and Olivia White. He also leaves behind his brother, Gerald White (Mickey); in addition to his loving nieces, nephews, other family members, and friends. He was preceded in death by his parents, Henry Lee and "Tiny" White, and two sisters, Mary Evelyn White and Hazel White Ward.

Serving as pallbearers are Brandon White, Daniel Johnson, Clint Chadwick, Garvin Whitten, Scott Whitten, and Greg White. Memorials in honor of John may be given to Murphy Creek Cemetery Fund, 5420 Bond Road, Louisville, MS 39339.

Services are under the direction of Massey Funeral Home, 724 North Columbus Avenue, Louisville, MS. Memories and condolences may be shared with the family by signing the guest register at www.masseyfuneralhome.net.
