“ Dearest Judy-- I wish I could comfort you in person. Words seem inadequate to express the sadness I feel about David's passing... and words won't heal the pain of losing him. I am here to support you in your journey of even more grief than you should be experiencing. As you grieve, know that I am remembering you and honoring the memory of David. I know we never lose the people we love, they just pass on ahead of us. They continue to participate in every act, thought and decision we make. They leave an imprint in our memories forever. I know we eventually do find comfort in knowing that our lives have been enriched by having shared their love, and by having those memories. Today and always, may loving memories bring you strength, comfort, and peace. You are constantly in my thoughts....My sincerest sympathy is always with you.

“ Cathy, Linda, Ronny and Benny, I send you all a big hug with all my love! I have not seen David in 25 years, but remember well how he and all of you loved and supported me when my first wife, Jerri, passed from this life. Wish I could be with you at this time. I bless all your family with infinite love and gratitude! Sonny Carr
