Junie was born in Winston County, Mississippi, on June 16, 1936, to Bill and Clara Miller Livingston. She was affectionately known as "Bear" by her family and longtime friends. She was an active member of Betheden Lutheran Church. She was also a beloved member of the Nanih Waiya Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, the Mashulatubbie Chapter of the Colonial Dames of the 17th Century, and Friends of the Noxubee Refuge. Junie was a graduate of Louisville High, East Central Junior College and Mississippi State University. Her work career included teaching, bookkeeping, and working in the Chancery Clerk's office. Her working career ended at Mississippi State University, where she was coordinator of High School

Independent Studies for Continuing Education.

Junie was an avid MSU bulldog fan attending as many sporting events as possible in her later years. She enjoyed working in her flowers and yard, playing cards with her friends, reading, researching genealogy, MSU tailgating, and traveling. Her travels included the United States, Germany, and Italy.

She is survived by her children: Susan Fuller Watts and husband, Leslie, of Louisville; Hal Fuller and wife, Beckie, of New Hope, Mississippi; and Bob Fuller and wife, Rev. Dr. Stacey Parvin, also of Louisville. One of her greatest joys was being “Meme” to her grandchildren: Laura Kate (Stefan) Tribble, Camille (James) Carskadon, Sudduth Fuller, Evvy Fuller, Caroline Fuller, and Clara Fuller and her great grandchildren: Charlotte Carskadon, Piper Tribble, and Theo Carskadon. She is also survived by her sisters, Shirley Livingston of Louisville and Gail (Jeff) Harrelson of Rockwood, Tennessee.
