

Laura Mae Hamill Jones

October 6, 1919 - February 26, 2013

Mrs. Laura Mae Hamill Jones, 93, passed away on Tuesday, February 26, 2013, at the Winston Medical Center Nursing Home in Louisville, Mississippi. Visitation will be from 5 p.m. until 8 p.m. on Thursday, February 28, 2013, at Nowell-Massey Funeral Home in Louisville. Funeral services will be held at 11:00 a.m. on Friday, March 1, 2013, in the Nowell-Massey Funeral Home Chapel. Interment will be in Beth Eden Church Cemetery.

Mrs. Jones was born on October 6, 1919, to Joe and Mary Lucas Hamill. She was a Christian affiliated with Beth Eden Lutheran Church and a homemaker. She answered the call to serve her country during World War II by working in Prairie, Mississippi, and in Cordova, Tennessee, at the Gulf Ordnance Plant, which manufactured ammunition. She also worked in the shipyard in Mobile, Alabama, during World War II. Mrs. Jones loved growing flowers and she worked incessantly in her yard. She truly had a "green" thumb...she could just break off a piece of any flower, root it, and raise beautiful flowers.

Mrs. Jones is survived by her husband of 67 years, Rabel Jones, who resides in the Veterans Administration Nursing Home in Kosciusko; her daughters, Faye Flake and husband, Jimmie, and JoAnne Harsh and husband, Dan, all of Louisville. She is also survived by three grandsons: Stephen Flake and wife, Ann; Chris Flake and wife, Quintina; and Eddie Harsh and wife, Crystal. Mrs. Jones has three great-granddaughters: Josie Cate Flake, Jenna Flake, and Lilly Grace Harsh. She was preceded in death by her grandson, Ken Harsh; her parents; her sister, Pauline Kinard; and her brothers, Oakley Hamill and Curtis Hamill.

Serving as pallbearers will be Drew Massey, Josh Massey, Kyle Jackson, Ben Jackson, Doug Shaw, and George "Junior" Jones. Arrangements are under the direction of Nowell-Massey Funeral Home, 724 North Columbus Avenue, Louisville, MS. “ Faye & Jo Ann & families, so very sorry to hear of your loss. Sorry I did not hear in time to make it to her service. So many dear memories are shared by our families. Again my deepest regrets. May God sustain you through this time, for I learned last year, no matter how many years God gives us with our mothers, it is never easy to loose them.
