“ *Linda was the oldest of the 15 Clay cousins. When we would all be together when we were little, she would watch over us younger ones like a mother hen. She was always such a sweet and upbeat person. I loved her like a sister and always looked forward to seeing her. Any loss is sad but hers is more than that. I love you, Linda, and I will miss you. “ My condolences to all of Linda's family. During our years of playing basketball together I learned much under her quiet but effective leadership. She was always a peacemaker using the qualities God granted her in her strong Christian faith to be the example I respected and admired. These attributes enabled her to live a joy filled and successful life in all of her endeavors and especially in the way she treated everyone around her.

I know God's countenance is gloriously shining upon this wonderful lady.

Blessings, God's Grace & Peace
