“ What good talks we had and the many nice memories of times with you, Mary and me. Thanks for the good times and for being such a good friend to my sister. I pray you are with Jesus now and safe in his arms. That is my prayer for you, Mable. To your family I am so sorry for your loss but please remember the good times Mable shared with you and know of her love for each one of you. God is good, all the time.
