“ *Jerry
So sorry for your loss. Mrs. Maggie was a very sweet lady that I meet over twenty-five years ago when I worked with Mr. Billy Joe at the WIC Warehouse there in Louisville. She and I exchanged Christmas cards every year and I looked forward to hearing how they were and then how she was after Mr. Billy Joe past away. I will be praying for you and your family*

“ We were so sorry to hear of Mrs. Maggie's death. She was a precious friend to us while we pastored at Crystal Ridge Baptist Church. (I (Jo) affectionately called her "Mama Maggie" most of the time. She would usually say, "How are you, Sugar?" We loved to visit with her because we were always welcomed into her home. We love all of you in her family and will be praying for you. She will be greatly missed by you and also by her church family. We wish we could be there for her service. Gos bless you all.
