“ Debbie, I do not know if you remember me or not. I am Philip Jabour. I grew up on National street very close to your family home. Marchelle and I graduated in the same class. I have very pleasant memories of your sister. She was always very nice to me and such a kind hearted person. I had not seen Marchelle in a long time, but always asked about her when we had our high school reunions. I am sorry for your loss. We lost Roy Nelson a few years back. I always felt we had a very special neighborhood when we were growing up. I hate that as I get older, I am losing some very special old friends.
