“ Lowell, we were so saddened to hear of Mary Frances' death. But our hearts were joyous knowing of her faith in Jesus Christ and in witnessing her living for Him on this earth. Now, she is with Jesus in Heaven receiving her righteous rewards. We remember her as such a wonderful, caring, and helpful neighbor to Mother and Dad for many years. They admired her gracious friendliness and loving kindness she displayed to them on so many occasions. Our thoughts and prayers will continue to be with you. May God bless your future.

“ Mary Frances and Lowell were kind neighbors and wonderful blessings to Mom and Dad. And, often provided for their needs, which many times, was just Christian fellowship. After Mother died, Dad was his own cook, but he did not do desserts. Mary Frances always shared her famous desserts with him. Both Lowell and Mary Frances are the Christian example Jesus taught of "Love your Neighbor as Yourself". Lowell, you and family are in our thoughts and prayers. Keith & Kathy
