“ Mrs. Ward gave me an iron skillet when I was married 12 years ago. She told me she thought it was a very practical gift for a young wife. She was right. That skillet has been a part of almost every day of my life for twelve years! I call it my "Betty Jane skillet"... My late grandmother, Annie Bess Todd, thought the world of Mrs. Ward as well. She was a special lady and she adored Clay so much. Our heavenly Father rejoices at her homecoming. May the peace of the Lord be with Mr. Ward and the whole family during this difficult time.

“ My condolences to all of the family. I know Mrs. Ward was a really fine lady because she raised a very fine daughter in my friend Carol. I hope that you will find comfort in the days ahead, and I will be praying for you.

“ I wanted to extend to the entire Ward family my sympathy and prayers. I know that this is a very difficult time. Mrs. Ward was a great lady, and treated me like a son. She will be greatly missed by all. We are all better people by having her in our lives.
