

Patricia Annette Rutledge

October 23, 1947 - June 12, 2024

Patricia Anne Rutledge, 76, passed away on Wednesday, June 12, 2024, at University Medical Center in Jackson, Mississippi. A Celebration of Life service will be held 10:30 a.m. Saturday, June 29 at Enon Cemetery in Ackerman, Mississippi, with Bro. Rob Faulk officiating.

Patricia was born October 23, 1947, to Donald Lyle and Patsy Allene Collins. She enjoyed working in her flower beds, cooking, and crocheting. Patricia loved her family dearly and relished the time she spent with them, especially her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Christmas was her favorite time of the year and she loved all the decorating that the Christmas season brought.

Patricia is survived by her children: daughters, Cindy Garrett DePriest of Louisville, and Lesia (Donnie) Harris of Ridgeland, Mississippi; and sons, Michael Bruce and Ron Rutledge both of Ackerman. One of her greatest joys was being “MeMe” to her five grandchildren: Nic (Marlanna) Oswalt, Stephen Garrett, Hanna Harris, Skyler Rutledge, and Destiny Rutledge and to her four great-grandchildren. Patricia is also survived by family friend, Cody Marks; other family members, and loving friends. She was preceded in death by her son, Marc Bruce; granddaughter, Grace DePriest; and her mother, Patsy Allene Collins.

Services are under the direction of Massey Funeral Home, 724 North

Columbus Avenue, Louisville, MS. Memories and condolences may be shared with the family by signing the guest register at www.nowellmasseyfuneralhome.com.

“ Patricia was the Mother of a couple of cousins of mine. In those days there were 3 boys living at home... and 20 kids from the neighborhood! Patricia took it all in stride. A happy home where everyone could relax. She provided Pool swims, cook outs, and when needed a scolding for bad behavior.

If it takes a village, Patricia did way more than her share. She will be missed.
