“ Paul was a good friend. We played this game, Wrestler Unstoppable, together. he would devote a lot of his time to helping people out and doing stuff to help others in the game. He never wanted credit and preferred to just do stuff behind the curtains, so to speak. He was generous, selfless, and never turned anyone away when they asked him for help or a favor. He touched so many lives, he made the game so enjoyable for hundreds of people. His legacy will go on for we will NEVER forget him or what he did for us all. If I could become half the man Paul was, I'd be twice the man I am today. God, please watch over his family and friends. You'll be missed, brother. RIP.
