“ My sincere condolences to the family, Chief Deas showed me what it means to be a true leader. I served with him at Newport R.I. and he taught me so much. At a time when i was at my lowest, he encouraged me to train for Navy dive school and BUDS. Although i never made it to either, he was always giving me advice and support. After being discharged, i still have difficult life moments and i would always say to myself, what would Chief do. one of the last TRUE sailors the Navy had. Fair winds and following seas, he is now with Captain Hausenblaus, and is his personal independent duty Corpsman in Heaven. Chief saved my butt many times, and ill never forget it. thanks for showing what it means to be a good corpsman, leader, and a good human being. your humour and leadership will be missed.

“ Doc,
The world is a lesser place without you and you will forever be missed by all of us. We've kept you and Lisa in our thoughts and prayers daily for some time now.
As I told you 2 weeks back, I'm forever in your debt for all you did for me going back some 38 years now. I already miss the e-mails, texts and occasional telephone calls from time to time. I still smile about that 35yr old POLK DASO T-Shirt I sent you.
Thank you again Shipmate and God Bless you and Lisa.
RIP Doc
