“ Br. Neal was proud of his tomatoes. And they were fine tomatoes. One Sunday morning as he came in he handed me a small bag with two very beautiful tomatoes in it. He said, "Now I know that brother of mine brought you some tomatoes. And he thinks he has good tomatoes. But I wanted you to know what good tomatoes are so I brought you these. BUT DON'T TELL MY BROTHER!"

Sorry to read about a previous neighbor passing to be with Christ for eternity. However, he is enjoying Heaven as we will join him later. I attended school with Oneal's brother, J. F. at Mt. Pisgah Grammar School. "May God be with the family"
