“ I have so many memories of Thaniel that it would be impossible to put them all on here. First to Diane and girls. I am so sorry for each of you. I know this pain you are having and can only tell you that I am asking God to comfort you. Secondly, I know there was laughter in Heaven yesterday as two old friends were reunited and remembering old times. Thirdly my funniest memory of Thaniel is that he tried to talk Joe out of marrying me the night before our wedding. It was not, he said, that he did not like me, but just hated that he was losing his roommate. Lol. May God wrap his loving arms around each of you and give you comfort. I love all of you.

“ Much love to my aunt Dianne and cindy, gaye, tonya, nikki. Of my many memories of uncle Thaniel I clearly remember IGA especially the his bbq sandwiches and thinking I was the cool kid because I got to go in the meet department and watch what he did best. Thanks Uncle thaniel for the time you tried your best to teach me to play golf, but in your own words after an hour you will never get rid of the the softball swing I think you best stick to softball your definitely not a golfer. Lol I still smile amend laugh at this today. Most of all I never got to tell you thank you for fighting for our freedom and doing what you had to do to take care of my aunt and my sweet cousins and again I say salute military man and fly high...never will be forgotten
Love your niece,
