“ I will always remember the many laughs we all had during our times together. So sad that we couldn't have started enjoying them sooner. But thank God for the time we had. You are now at peace with no more pain. Mother once told me that when Elizabeth was born God had sent an Angel to watch over this family and I truly believe that. For as she watched over you Baby, she will keep close eyes on her grandma too! I hope you are hearing me write this as I talk to myself. Sorry I could not be there to say good bye. Faye and the girls know that I am here if they need anything. After things settle down I am planning on getting together with Faye and just relaxing. You are missed already.

Love you
Your sister in law
