

Thresea Cooper Boykin

June 17, 1960 - January 13, 2021

Thresea Cooper Boykin, 60, passed away on Wednesday, January 13, 2021, at her home in Louisville, Mississippi. Private family funeral services will be Friday, January 15 with Bro. Trent Jaudon officiating. Interment will immediately follow in Evergreen Cemetery.

Thresea was born June 17, 1960, to Thomas D. and Billie Dean Bouchillon Cooper in Louisville. She was a gemologist as well as a very talented musician and artist. Thresea enjoyed putting puzzles together and was an avid reader including her love of studying the Bible.

Thresea is survived by her husband Matt Boykin and her mother Billie Dean Cooper both of Louisville. She is also survived by three children: Marcia (William) Robison of Florence, Mississippi, Michael Vance of Jackson, Tennessee, and Christina Randall also of Louisville. One of her greatest joys was being "MeMe" to her three grandchildren: Autumn Davis, Angelina Stodola, and Michael Scott Stodola. Also left to mourn her passing is her brother Thomas (Brigitte) Cooper of Louisville; in addition to her nieces, cousins, and friends. She was preceded in death by her father Thomas D. Cooper.

Serving as pallbearers are Thomas Cooper, Cooper Cefalu, Tony Wood, Randy Hill, and Patrick Wylie. Gifts in memory of Thresea may be given to Nowell-Massey Funeral Home to help with funeral expenses.

Services are under the direction of Nowell-Massey Funeral Home, 724 North Columbus Avenue, Louisville, MS. Memories and condolences may be shared with the family by signing the guest register at www.nowellmasseyfuneralhome.com.

“ I am so sorry to hear of Theresa's passing. I remember as a child, riding the school bus together. My best memories of her are when we worked together at Winston County Hospital in the mid 80's, where we got to know each other. My prayers and thoughts are with you, Matt, Deanie, Thomas and Bridgett, and all of your families
