Timmy was born July 24, 1975, to Zane Smith Jones and Gary D. Riggs, Sr., in Louisville, Kentucky. He was self-employed in the construction industry, and was very talented in woodworking. Timmy was an avid Mississippi State and University of Louisville fan. He enjoyed watching NASCAR races with his dad, brothers, and cousins, especially if Kevin Harvick was leading. He also enjoyed fishing whenever possible. When he made it back to Mississippi, nothing could beat his mom's Robert Redford pie, and a visit with his girls.

Timmy is survived by two daughters, Lexus and Madison Riggs; his mother, Zane Jones, all of Noxapater; and his father, Gary Riggs, Sr. of Falls of Rough, Kentucky. He is also survived by his sister, Cynthia Flake and husband, Anthony, of Philadelphia, Mississippi; and two brothers, Gary Riggs and wife, Kim, of Louisville, Kentucky; and Scotty Riggs and wife, LeeAnn, of Clinton, Mississippi. Timmy leaves behind to mourn his passing two nieces, Kaeli and Ciara Riggs; and six nephews: Laine Flake, Korbin Riggs, Payton Flake, Josiah, Micah, and Lucas Riggs; as well as a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends. He was preceded in death by his paternal grandparents, Yvonne and Elmer Riggs; and his maternal grandparents, Woodrow and Claudia Mae Smith.

Serving as pallbearers will be Robert Hammons, Rick Langley, Chris Miller, Randy Morris, Gary Riggs and Scotty Riggs. Honorary pallbearers are Tony Lomoro and Quentin Popec.

“ We had some great times, I'm glad I had the opportunity to meet you and to get to know you. I think of you often, when I hear "My Wish" my song as you told me. And of course the nickname you gave me, Betty Boo and nobody but you could call me that. You would tell them, "that's my Betty Boo" and I would laugh...you could all ways make me laugh. When I was down! RIP TIM
