Wayne was my cousin. we shared many good times as I got to visit my grandmother during the summers when we were just kids!! . we all shared alot of good memories. He was a good man and loved his family. I always remember him to be easy going and would give you the shirt off his back. Hate we let so many years pass by without visiting each other. He will be greatly missed. He fought a long and hard battle bless his heart, but I know he was greeted at heavens doors by so many that loved him. God bless you Wayne, and your family of whom you left behind. For one day you will all be reunited. We all know they will live in your memory and God will watch over them for you.

“ I guess I've known Wayne practically all my life. From 1st grade on. Almost a kind word. Always a smile. Always quiet, compared to me anyway. Know he was so proud of his kids. Still have a rocker I got that Wayne was letting kids sell at a yard sale. I think about that day a lot and the pride in his eyes talking about his babies!!! You will certainly be missed but know you are in such a wonderful peaceful place. Prayers and hugs for all family!

“ I knew Waynie for around 45 years. He was always a great guy and a good man, and I will always have fond memories of him. He raised a fine son, "Tick", my buddy. Waynie is with God for sure and no longer suffering.
