“ No way to even start. I will treasure my memories of Bill until the day I join him. But got to admit going skiing on the river, to him working on and fixing things for us, to going to see Waylon Jennings with him and Monma Pat, to him bringing me a birthday card at my work,those are just starters. I love you Bill Warmack.

“ I know three brothers that grew up to be fine husbands, brothers, and fathers. I have always thought about the fact that I am one of three brothers as well. Brothers have that thing. That things that says "I can mess with him whenever I want, because he's my brother, but nobody else better!" Brothers love one another unconditionally.

Brothers til the end. As my Father is blessed to have two wonderful brothers, so am I.

I can only imagine the pain my Father feels at this time. I wish Lloyd and Charles the strength and love they need to say goodbye to their baby brother. To Billy's immediate family, I have no words to console you, except to say I love you all. May God give you the strength and solitude to endure this time and find strength in each other's love.
