

William Jack Smith

October 16, 1917 - January 24, 2021

William N. "Mr. Jack" Smith, 103, passed away peacefully on Sunday, January 24, 2021, at Windsor Place in Columbus, Mississippi. Private graveside services and interment will be Wednesday, January 27 at Memorial Cemetery in Louisville, Mississippi.

Jack was born October 16, 1917, to Joe and Arie Ewing Smith in Noxubee County, Mississippi. He was a member of Fairview Baptist Church in Columbus, Mississippi. Jack was a welder on the first bay constructed for Babcock & Wilcox in West Point. On the day of completion, B & W hired him as their first welder in the plant. He later retired at the age of 63 as a Welder Specialist.

Jack is survived by his daughter Faye Morgan; and his son Wayne Smith all of Columbus. He is also survived by his five grandchildren: Chip (Ginger) Smith, Scott Smith, Bryan (Candace) Smith, Sandy (Harold) Williams, and Melanie (Myron) Nash; as well as his six great-grandchildren: Kelsea (Wes) Nichols, Brant Smith, Brylee Smith, Frazier (Jessica) Williams, Morgan Williams, and Arie (Brandon) Carlton. He also leaves behind three great-great-grandchildren: Farrah Williams, Hugo Williams, and Ellie Carlton. Jack was preceded in death by his parents, seven brothers and sisters, and his wife of 81 years Lottie Smith.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that memorial gifts in honor of Jack be given to Fairview Baptist Church, 127 Airline Road, Columbus, MS 39702.

Services are under the direction of Nowell-Massey Funeral Home, 724 North Columbus Avenue, Louisville, MS. Memories and condolences may be shared with the family by signing the guest register at www.nowellmasseyfuneralhome.com.

“ *I am so sorry for your loss - I just loved Mr. Jack - I met him in the alhimesimer unit at the windsor when I had enrolled a good friend of my dad & me - his name was James McClelland, aka..Jim or JL - they were roommates for almost 2 years - I loved all the conversations we had - I even went to visit him a few times after Jim passed away!
Mr. Jack was such a sweet, sweet man - I know he will be missed!!
My Condolences and Prayers for the family 🙏❤️🙏*
